

MOVEMENTS IN RAILS COME AS SCHEDULED

Proves That Professionals Control
Market and Big People Are in Sympathy.

GENERAL OPTIMISM PREVAILS

Good News From Russia and Further
Importation of Gold Have Bullish Effect—Motors Get Shock From Saxon Announcement.

NEW YORK, June 25.—This railroad week in Wall Street, the movements in the market came as scheduled time, proving not only that professional control is in sympathy, but that big people are in sympathy with the market and are optimistic. First there is the good news from Russia, where the gold importation is expected to be large. The next factor is the importation of gold.

Baldwin Locomotive continued a leader among industrialists, although Crutcher had a wider swing upward. Railway Steel, Bethlehem Steel, and other specialties were strong. Motors got a shock when the Saxon company announced that the rumor on Saturday that there had been many cancellations. The same conditions exist in other companies. All motors lost on official announcement by the Saxon company.
